Baseball Yields to Potatoes at Zant zinger's Park.

HTATTSVILLE, Md., May 7.—Base-ball will not be played this year upon the diamond in Zantsinger's Park—po-tatoes instead of baseballs will have full away on the large clear spot in the woods. The owner, realising the contemplated shortage in food crops, has had the field plowed and planted. It is the first time in the memory of most of the older residents that this spot has been used for agricultural purposes, but that it is an ideal spot no one denies.

FOR LIBERTY LOAN

Bankers' Estimate Includes Sum From Small Investors.

How much of the $7,000,000,000 Liberty Loan will Washington absorb and how will it be absorbed? is the question being discussed today by bankers, brokers, business men, and thousands of investors, small and thousands of investors, small and the same investors are expected to absorb, would bring Washington's total up to $7,000,000. However, subscriptions which doubtless will come from the business estimates the same investors are expected to absorb, would bring Washington's total up to $7,000,000.

will play an important part in Washington's subscription is conceded by bankers generally. That at least $2.investors is the belief of a number of prominent bankers here, and practically all agree that subscriptions from this class of investors will run well above $1,000,000.

The fact that more than $1,000,000 was saved last year in Christmas savings funds is an indication of the cossibilities among the smaller tors. Considering that the small investors here have saved this amount in normal times, it is believed that the sum can be doubled when patriotic sentiment stimulates savings.

Banks Ald Investors. Washington banks are offering every encouragement to the public to buy these bonds, several having announced their readiness to sell the nounced their readiness to sell the small bonds on the partial-payment plan, charging the same rate of interest on the unpaid balance as the bond yields, so that the investor need make no sacrifice in order to own a bond.
